Describe student daily duties:

Positions vary, and may be rotated or fit to the student at our discretion. All positions are service oriented and require sales / selling and speaking with the customer and cleaning the area. Some positions require some physical labor and others require food handling. Some positions are located in open air, others are located indoors. One position requires drivers license for moving Golf Carts on the premises (not on the street) Some duties could include: watering plants, vacuuming/mopping or sweeping the floor, washing windows, cleaning the area bathroom, periodic display window decorating for clothing store, spray painting stencils on the sidewalk, organizing rental golf carts, folding and straightening clothes. You will be responsible for the general operation of the shop, from opening to closing, cleaning everyday, folding shirts constantly throughout the day and during slow periods and keeping the product orderly, restocked and neatly presented, watering plants, emptying trash, keeping the bathroom clean, vacuuming daily among other duties. Showing up for work bright eyed, fresh and enthusiastic to work, generally you will work all day without official break and will need to prepare and bring your lunch with you and eat during slow periods throughout the day in a polite fashion. You may be given 1-2 day(s) a week off per week before 3rd week in June and August after 3rd week. July, you will be required to work everyday, (unless you are willing to take less hours all season). Any unscheduled requested time off will need a 2 week notice and approval. There will be no approved time off on any Holidays, Weekends, Festivals or potential busy times in July. Generally Mon, Tue, or Wed are approved days to have off before 3rd week in June and after 3rd week of August. Not all requested days off will be approved. You are required to remain inside the shop you are working, so you should bring with you what you need for the day (like food-already prepared, a sweater if you get cold, something to drink etc)
